

Sermon Notes
Mar. 7, 2010

God's Design & Purposes
in the Cross
Communion

Scripture - 1 Peter 2:21-25

Introductory Thoughts

Jesus' death on the cross was no accident. It was planned out by the Father before time began. Jesus' death is more than an offer of redemption it has effective power to live the redeemed life. This morning we will focus on God's design and purposes in the cross.

God's Design or Decree

1 Cor. 1:9; Acts 13:48; Ro. 8:28-30; Eph. 1:12; 1 Thess. 1:4-5; 1 Pet.1:1, 2:9

1st Purpose = To follow in Jesus' footsteps (v.21)
"for you" - in the place of you

2nd Purpose = To die to sin and live to righteousness (v.24)
Does this make the good news burdensome?

3rd Purpose = To receive permanent healing (v.25)
"wounds" would better be translated— "wound"

Jesus' death effectively brings all of His back to the Shepherd of their souls!

Sermon Notes
Mar. 7, 2010

God's Design & Purposes
in the Cross
Communion

Scripture - 1 Peter 2:21-25

Introductory Thoughts

Jesus' death on the cross was no accident. It was planned out by the Father before time began. Jesus' death is more than an offer of redemption it has effective power to live the redeemed life. This morning we will focus on God's design and purposes in the cross.

God's Design or Decree

1 Cor. 1:9; Acts 13:48; Ro. 8:28-30; Eph. 1:12; 1 Thess. 1:4-5; 1 Pet.1:1, 2:9

1st Purpose = To follow in Jesus' footsteps (v.21)
"for you" - in the place of you

2nd Purpose = To die to sin and live to righteousness (v.24)
Does this make the good news burdensome?

3rd Purpose = To receive permanent healing (v.25)
"wounds" would better be translated— "wound"

Jesus' death effectively brings all of His back to the Shepherd of their souls!